Email & Phishing @ UNC

BY THE NUMBERS*...

8.2 million
emails received per day

7.7 million
emails blocked per day

7% of emails
received each day are delivered to mailboxes

551,000
emails delivered per day

Over a two week* period we stopped:

107,392,847 emails by reputation filtering

916,588 spam messages

1,490 with known virus attachments

93,306 with malicious links

1% blocked for spam content

STAYING VIGILANT ON CAMPUS

4,459 reports of phish were sent to the ITS Service Desk between March 16 and May 4, 2016.

Think you caught a phish?

- Don't reply to the sender.
- Don't click on any links or pictures.
- Don't open attachments.
- Forward the email to phish@unc.edu.
- Delete the email from your computer.

TOP TIP

UNC will never ask you to confirm your Onyen or password via email. If an email asks you do so, forward it to phish@unc.edu.

UNC INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

*Numbers averaged or aggregated from period covering April 22 - May 6, 2016